

Two truck loads of garbage like this were removed Saturday from a natural artesian well site in Lemont by members of two conservation groups and a Boy Scout troop. The garbage is as deep as 10 feet in some areas.

Groups Clear Garbage From Lemont Well Site

LEMONT — About 35 persons turned out Saturday to clear garbage and debris from a unique natural area in Lemont.

The area, about three miles west of Route 171 on Main Street, is the site of a natural artesian well Lemont residents have used to obtain spring water.

Members of the Sagawau Conservation Club, the Ecology Action Committee of Moraine Community College and Palos Area Boy Scout Troop 1668 worked from 10 a.m. Saturday until rain made it impossible to stay longer. Two truck loads of garbage were removed from the area.

A truck was provided by Ray Conley, Lemont Township superintendent, who also worked with the group.

"People have been going to the area for years to get water from the well," says Mrs. Myrtle Blenz, a member of the Sagawau Club. "But they also have been leaving their garbage as they go. The area is becoming a breeding ground for rats and mosquitos. On the hillside going down to the well, garbage is 10 feet deep. It's just rotten to the core."

Mrs. Blenz says the spring is in danger of pollution from the amount of garbage in the area. "People are drinking the water, but causing a hazard to their own health by leaving the garbage there."

Limestone bluffs in the area range from 10 to 12 feet in height with the spring feeding into a basin at the base. The outcropping is a remnant of the Wisconsin glacier and is about 10,000 to 12,000 years old.

The land is privately owned, but members of the groups obtained special permission for the project.

Club to Hold Pet Parade

LEMONT — The Singer-Warner Mother's Club will hold its annual pet parade at 2 p.m. Sunday, July 12 for children age 1 through elementary school.

Three prizes will be awarded in each of five categories: pets, decorated bicycles, decorated tricycles, costumes, wagons and floats. Each contestant will receive a free carnival ride ticket courtesy of the teen club.

The parade will form at 1:40 p.m. at the playground, Warner and Eureka, and end in the Shopping Plaza.

New Lockport Bank Plans Public Meeting

LOCKPORT — A public organizational meeting for the new Bank of Lockport has been scheduled for 8 p.m. Thursday, June 25, in the Knights of Columbus Hall on Division Street in Lockport.

A permit to organize the new Bank of Lockport was issued last month by Roland W. Blaha, Illinois Commissioner of Banks and Trust Companies.

The purpose of the meeting is to explain the forma-

Paddock Buys Graphic Newspapers from Field

The sale of two Chicago suburban newspaper publishing companies by Field Enterprises, Inc. to Paddock Publications, Inc. was announced June 19 by Bailey K. Howard, president of Field Enterprises, and Stuart R. Paddock Jr., president of Paddock Publications.

Paddock purchased Day Publications, Inc. (Arlington Day, Prospect Day, Des Plaines Day and Northwest Day) and Tri-County Publishing Co., which publishes Graphic Newspapers, weeklies in the suburban area southwest of Chicago.

In announcing the transaction, Howard said: "Several years ago Field Enterprises, Inc. felt there was a need for improved local community journalism in the Chicago suburban area. We then acquired Tri-County Publishing Co. and later founded Day Publications, Inc. and Metropolitan Printing Company, and introduced daily newspapers serving the unique local needs of a number of suburban areas. We believe our experiment has contributed to the progress and growth of these communities. Many suburban publishers and the Chicago metropolitan newspapers as well have improved and increased their service to suburban readers.

"Paddock Publications, Inc., which has published distinguished weekly newspapers for nearly a century, responded with courage and foresight in greatly expanding its service to its communities. We, therefore, welcomed the proposal of Stuart R. Paddock, Jr. to assume ownership of Day Publications and Tri-County in the knowledge that he will continue to maintain standards of local service which have earned national recognition.

"For our part, Field Enterprises pledges to continue to devote its resources to our metropolitan community—city and suburban. In particular, we will concentrate our efforts on The Chicago Sun-Times and The Chicago Daily News."

Paddock said his newspapers would continue to "adjust to new conditions, to change old concepts and practices, and to look to the future with broader insights and new perspectives.

"Our suburbs are better served today, and will be even better served in the future, because of the contributions of Day Publications," Paddock stated. "In this regard, the communities served by Day Publications have been well served and owe a debt of gratitude to this pioneering enterprise."

Paddock will incorporate features of the Day Publications in his Herald newspapers and former Day subscribers will receive the Herald beginning Monday, June 22.

Paddock will continue to operate the Graphic weeklies with their present staffs. Expansion of news and advertising coverage is planned for the near future.

Metropolitan Printing Company, a subsidiary of Field Enterprises, Inc., was not involved in the sale.

Statement by Stuart Paddock

The sale of Tri-County Publishing Co. and the Graphic Newspapers by Field Enterprises, Inc. was announced Friday by Bailey K. Howard, president of Field Enterprises, and Stuart R. Paddock Jr., president of Paddock Publications.

The purchase also included another Field subsidiary, Day Publications, Inc., which publishes four suburban daily newspapers in northwest Cook County.

Paddock Publications, based in Arlington Heights, publishes 10 morning daily newspapers for northwest Cook County and five tri-weekly newspapers for north DuPage County.

Tri-County's offset printing plant and the Graphic papers will remain intact for the present time and will be operated through a new subsidiary company of Paddock Publications to be named Paddock Crescent Newspapers, Inc.

James M. Godbold, president and publisher of Graphic Newspapers, has been named president of the new Paddock subsidiary. Walter E. Bixby, vice-president and general manager of Tri-County, will hold the same position in the new firm. The same staff will continue to serve readers and advertisers.

"Paddock Publications has a national reputation in the field of community journalism," said Godbold, "and we believe your new publisher will contribute greatly to the growth and progress of this area."

In announcing the transaction, Stuart R. Paddock said Field Enterprises has "expressed its confidence in our capacity to carry on the program they began. We respect that confidence and will strive to merit it by continuing to accept the challenges and opportunities of the future."

He added that expanded news coverage, increased advertising services, and other improvements are planned for the near future.

Bailey K. Howard said that Field welcomed Paddock's proposal to buy the two suburban newspaper publishing companies "in the knowledge that he will continue to maintain standards of local service which have earned national recognition."

He added that Field Enterprises would continue "to devote its resources to our metropolitan community, city and suburban. In particular, we will concentrate our efforts on the Chicago Sun-Times and Chicago Daily News."

The origin of Paddock newspapers is traced to 1872 and the founding of the Cook County Herald, now the Des Plaines Herald/Day.

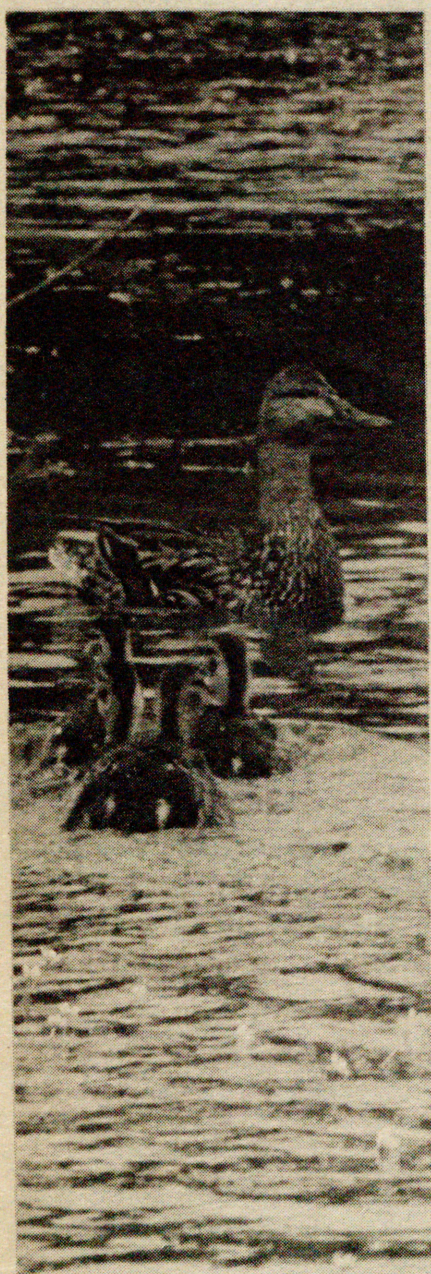

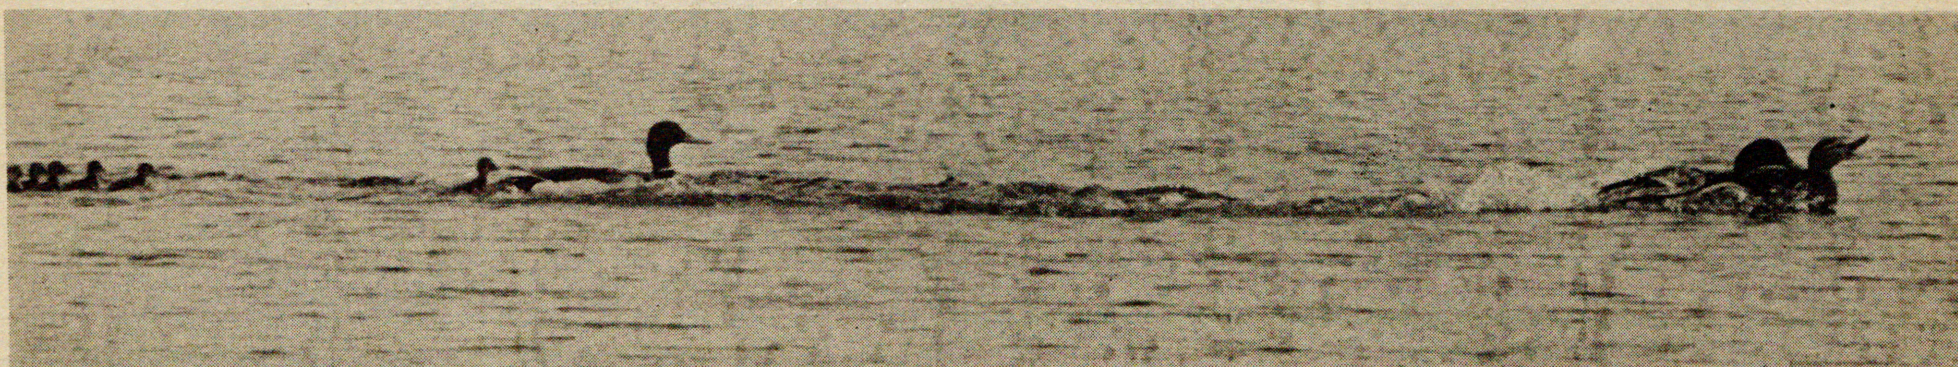

The suburban chain was weekly until 1967, when publication of all papers increased to tri-weekly. The Cook County papers began daily publication 14 months ago.

Historically, the Paddock newspapers have pioneered the field of suburban community publishing. Their philosophy is that suburban readers deserve and want the same kind of professional journalism locally that they expect from their metropolitan newspaper. As a result, Paddock traditionally has invested heavily in editorial staff, which currently includes 71 full-time employees.

During the past 10 years, the Paddock papers have earned more than 400 state and national press awards for journalistic excellence.

Recently, the firm expanded its board of directors to include two of the country's leading editors, plus specialists in newspaper management, finance and print technology. It remains, as in the early days of its existence, a locally owned and controlled organization.

It's All In A Duck's Day

The recent cover picture of the Graphic News depicting a female Mallard duck on a nest surrounded by cans and bottles may have looked like a set-up shot. It was not so. To take the picture at the right, our photographer, Steve Potter, had to remove all the debris.

Considering that he was dealing with a nesting female, the job was not easy. Mama duck refused to budge when he first tried to remove the trash. She hissed and threatened to attack so he left. He came back again three days later. Mama duck was calmer then. He was able to move in, remove the bottles and cans and get the picture at the right. She threatened to bite, but never struck.

TOP PICTURE: Peaceful scene? Not exactly. Two males came down from the sky and started chasing the swimming female at the right and her brood at the left. She is squawking about the attack. After she got some hard pecks on the neck, the two molesting males took off.

LEFT: A mama duck turns to allow her brood to catch up to her as the photographer's boat closes in from the rear. The scene was shot with a telephoto lens.

BELOW: Around sundown, Mallards generally fly around on a mass final evening feeding flight.

Female Mallards lay between eight and 12 eggs each spring. They take approximately 18 to 20 days to hatch. Almost immediately after they are hatched, young Mallards head for the water.

The nest is made out of twigs and duck's down. It is usually built on the ground just a few feet from the water's edge.

Young ducklings have brown and yellow plumage for several weeks. Their marking is such that it blends in with the background of the nesting area making them difficult for land predators to see. They have absolutely no scent, one of Nature's protective clauses for the young.

One of the duckling's greatest dangers is the turtle. Mosbacks often follow the string of swimming feet grabbing off a straggler now and then for a quick duckling dinner.

In states along the Mississippi, at the turn of the century, spring duck hunting was still allowed. Some of the ducks killed were nesting females. The practice took its toll until the lobbying of conservationists achieved federal restrictions.

tion of the new bank to local residents, and to inform them of procedures for purchasing stock in the new bank.

The organizers are anticipating that the majority of the stock in the new Bank of Lockport will be purchased by local residents of the Lockport area, and are hopeful that some residents will serve as bank directors.

The new Bank of Lockport will have a total capitalization of $750,000, consisting of $300,000 in capital stock, $300,000 surplus, and $150,000 reserve for operating expenses.

30,000 shares of stock will be available to the general public at $25 per share, with a minimum purchase of 10 shares, and a maximum of 5% of the total outstanding shares to any one individual. Information on the purchase of stock may be obtained from any of the organizers mentioned below.

The organizers of the new Bank of Lockport are William J. Callahan of Lisle, President of the Bank of Lisle; J. Jay Gerber of Naperville, Principal in Gonsler, Gerber, Tinker, and Stuhr of Chicago; Vernon S. Hoesch, of Naperville, President of First Ogden Corporation; John W. Norman of Lisle, President of the Norman Oil Company of Lisle; George K. Pilkenton of Naperville, Vice President and Trust Officer of the Bank of Naperville; F.W. Robbins of Hinsdale, President of Bliss & Laughlin of Oak Brook; Dr. Arlo Schilling of Naperville, President of North Central College; and G. Ward Stearns of Naperville, President of the Bank of Naperville.

The proposed bank site is at 822-826 East Ninth Street in Lockport. While no definite opening date has been announced, the organizers are hopeful of having the bank operational before the end of this year.

Change Pollution Talk Date

JOLIET — A luncheon meeting planned by the Will-Grundy Manufacturing Association for June 26 to discuss pollution legislation has been re-scheduled for July 23 at Al's Steak House, 1990 W. Jefferson St.

Clarence W. Klassen, technical secretary of the Illinois Air Pollution Control Board and the Illinois Sanitary Water Board, and Orville Bergren, secretary, Illinois Manufacturers Association, are to be the principal speakers.

All of the area village boards will be represented at this meeting. The Illinois Sanitary Water Board is the high, low and middle justice when it comes to municipal sewer and water problems.

RESIDENTS OF MARYVILLE DRIVE in Lockport awakened Sunday morning to find they had suddenly acquired "lake-front" property, the result of Saturday's heavy rains. The children in the neighborhood took advantage of the unexpected body

Get Plans For Center Road Sewer, Water

FRANKFORT — Sewers, signs, sidewalks and zoning all came in for mention at the recent session of the village board here.

Bradley Industries is planning a match factory for a site on Center Rd. and would have water and sewer service. Mayor Glenn Warning reiterated what he said at a previous meeting — the village would aid the Bradley firm as much as it could but had no money to spend on the extension of water and sanitary sewer facilities.

John Djerf, of Robert E. Hamilton and Associates, village engineers, had drawings of the extensions and an estimate of cost. The plans show approximately 900 feet of sewer main at $8.50 per foot and 490 feet of water main at $8 per foot. The job, with engineering fees, would run to approximately $11,000, Djerf said. This cost would have to be borne by the Bradley firm but arrangements could be made under which the industrial firm could get some of its money back from tap-ons which other property owners may make on the sewer and water mains, it was explained.

Sewage can be carried by gravity from Laraway Rd. into Frankfort it was said but beyond Laraway it would not work. Center Rd. rides on a ridge, Djerf said and below Laraway road the land slopes off east and west.

There was some discussion about fees for annexation. In some communities owners of land annexed into a municipality pay a fee, sometimes a thousand dollars an acre, sometimes less, sometimes more. This makes it fairer to property owners already in a municipality who have already paid for various improvements, it was said.

The board voted unanimously to approve a change in zoning in Lincoln Meadows from R-1 to R-3 to permit erection of apartment buildings.

The action of the board was approval of the recommendation of the village zoning board of appeals. Residents of the area had filed a legal objection to the zoning change, which necessitated action by six members of the village board.

Steven Axelrod and Andrew Jones, as spokesmen for Lincoln Meadow residents, appeared before the village board two weeks ago and asked that action be held up on the zoning until they had opportunity to talk with the owner of the land. Armand D'Andrea, of Joliet, and Paul Wirth, of Frankfort, the developer. The objectors agreed the property would not serve, as it stood, for single family homes and said that if it could not make a deal to utilize the area for recreation then they would have no objections to placing apartments there. Axelrod called Trustee Lynn Kohlhaugen before the meeting and said they were unable to proceed with their recreational plans, thanked the board for giving the objectors a chance, and agreed that the best use left for the property was erection of multiple dwellings. However, the legal objection was not withdrawn so the zoning change required six votes. Trustee Michael McAndrew was out of town and Trustee Robert Dean was working late but arrived about 9:30 o'clock, and with Mayor Glenn Warning voting the six votes became available. Attorney George E. Sangmeister was present for the developer.

Wunder Construction Co. of Plainfield was awarded the contract for motor fuel tax road maintenance in the village this year. There were three bids and the one submitted by Richard Wunder was lowest, $3,717. Next lowest was $3,822 and the high bid was $4,025.

Trustee Kohlhaugen reported a survey was being made to determine how many sidewalks must be repaired and an estimate made of the cost. It is up to the village to repair the walks and the board appears to be willing to go along with property owners on sidewalks on a 50-50 basis in those sections where there are no sidewalks now.

There was some discussion on signs in general and the commercial area owned by Harry Gansel on U.S. 45 in particular. Gansel allegedly was erecting a sign without a permit. Police Chief Ted Massey was instructed to keep an eye on the situation.

It takes a building permit to put a sign up but it takes a heap of talk to get weeds cut. The subject was being discussed by the board when Attorney Herbert Folkers dropped in to see what was going on. He was greeted with chorused demand to get the weeds cut on some of his property.

Folkers said he has been trying to get some of the property plowed for three months and hoped to succeed soon. There is an 80-acre tract too but he pointed out that was outside the village. There are other tracts in the village now weed grown, it was said. The village probably will do the cutting and charge the owners.

Repairs on the water tank at the village hall site are scheduled to begin. Trustee Wilbert Klier, acting on instructions by the board, has purchased a tractor with mowers and other attachments for the village at a price of $4,400. The board decided to pay cash instead of installments and interest.

Mayor Warning will be out of town when the board meets July 6, and Trustee Klier was named to preside as mayor pro-tem.

Klassen, Bergren Will Speak

SOUTHWEST—The Will-Grundy Manufacturers' Association June 26 luncheon meeting will feature Clarence W. Klassen and Orville V. Bergren. Klassen is technical secretary of the Illinois Air Pollution Control Board and Illinois Sanitary Water Board and the chief Sanitary engineer, Department of Public Health. Bergren is secretary of the Illinois Manufacturers' Association.

The meeting will be held at Al's Steak House at noon Friday. Luncheon will be served at a cost of $4 per person. Although the meeting is primarily for the benefit of members of the association, because of its nature and importance, it is open to association guests, the news media and interested members of the public.

Pvt. Arthur D. Schilling, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur C. Schilling, Route 45, Frankfort, completed a field communications crewman course June 12, at Ft. Leonard Wood, Mo. He was also awarded the Expert Rifleman medal and has been promoted to an E2. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Schilling and family motored to Missouri for graduation from basic and brought Arthur back with them for a 16-day furlough.

Lockport Council Hears Complaints

LOCKPORT — Several Lockport residents appeared before the City Council at its June 15 meeting with a variety of complaints.

Ron Elder, a resident of North Jefferson Street, said he and his neighbors are plagued by sewer problems and asked the council what could be done about it. Elder told the council that although he lives within the city limits, he does not have sewer and water service. Residents of his area have septic tank systems and are all having the same problems, Elder said.

He was told that a survey is currently under way for the whole city, in the area of sewer and water, and that hopefully, in the future this problem will be taken care of. Alderman Frank Meyers said the city is not sitting on its hands, but is working on the problem. Alderman Jim Miller agreed with Elder, and said that something should be done for people who live within the city limits. Miller said, "It's easier for people who live outside the city to get sewer and water at the present time."

The council heard a letter from Richard Jaskowiak, a homeowner in College View, protesting the construction of a runway at the Lewis College Airport. His letter was also sent to Brother Paul French, president of Lewis College. He said that currently aircraft are causing "noise pollution" and unsafe conditions for area residents. He urged the council to remember that human lives were involved. Alderman Swen Nelson, mayor pro temp in the absence of George Nordstrom, told the council it should arrange to have representatives of the college at the next council meeting to talk with residents and discuss alternatives. The council accepted this and will invite representatives to the next council meeting.

Ed Boland, of 213 Jefferson Street, was not present at the meeting, but registered a complaint with a councilman regarding the "sand" that currently covers his house, the result of the repairs and remodeling underway at the water tank. According to Gordon McCluskey, the company who is doing the painting and sanding will take care of this problem.

Mrs. Kathleen Reiter and Mrs. Jane Strickland, both residents in the area where the new sewage treatment plant is being constructed, told the council it was unsafe for children to play outside because of blasting in the area which causes large rocks to fall into their yards. Mrs. Strickland said that several wells in the area have been tested and found to be contaminated, as a result of the construction. Both women complained they are left to pick up the rocks and debris which are strewn about. They requested that smaller charges be used for blasting, or that blasting be discontinued altogether and air hammers used.

The council asked Gordon McCluskey, director of Public Works to contact Foschi Brothers, the contractors, and ask them to use smaller charges for blasting. The women were advised that it might be necessary to hire an attorney to prove that the wells were contaminated as a direct result of the blasting.

In other business, the council deferred action on Richard Eberhardt's request to have 60 acres, part of a 100-acre tract which he owns on Division Street, annexed to the city. Forty acres of the tract are already within the city. Eberhardt plans a mobile home park on the property. Eugene Korst, the city attorney, told Eberhardt that a survey of the property must accompany the annexation ordinance. The matter will be discussed again at the July 6 council meeting.

The council also voted to donate $200 toward the purchase of fireworks for the city's Fourth of July celebration to be held at Dellwood Park.

Members of the council were informed that a group of citizens will appeal Judge Stewart Hutchinson's recent dismissal of a suit brought by the city against the District 91 School Board and the County Board of School Trustees, regarding the old Central School property. The city council is now named in the suit. Previously, the group of businessmen assisted the city in its efforts to prove ownership of the property. When the city voted at its June 1 meeting to discontinue any further legal action, the group of businessmen decided to instigate a taxpayers' suit.

Owners At N.L. Face Annexation

NEW LENOX — Between the village board and the Will County Health Department pressure is being brought to annex property owners in the Inner Court area now surrounded by the municipality.

Complaints have been registered that two of the householders which do not have a hook-up with the village sanitary sewer system have septic systems that are not operating properly and permitting raw sewage to escape into the open.

Action has been started to bring the properties into the village and have them make connections with the sewer.

There are several other homes, still unannexed, on Maple Lane and another part of Inner Drive. They have not had any raw sewage problems yet, it was reported, but the village wants to bring them in and have them connect with the sewer mains. Right now, it was reported, such properties are getting village services, including garbage pick-up.

On the recommendation of the planning commission the Hauser Court subdivision has been accepted by the village. Before building permits can be issued, however, a permit must be obtained by the village from the Illinois Sanitary Water Board to connect the subdivision sewers with the village mains. The subdivisions have been granted permission to put in their sewer lines but the water board has not OK'd a hook-up with the village sewers yet. Roy Dowle, the village business manager, is to write the state agency and ask that a permit be granted.

New Lenox is in the process of enlarging its sewage treatment facilities and it is expected the improvements will be completed by December. Meanwhile any sewer connections must be approved by the water board.

Trustees Jack Batson and Howard Hutchins are to investigate the need of a small water supply at the sewage plant and report back to the board. John Djerf, of Robert E. Hamilton and Associates, village engineers had suggested perhaps a small well would serve.

At its meeting July 1, the village board will take bids on an addition to the village hall, which will provide a larger council chamber, and also on a drainage project, involving the Inner Court area and Cedar Rd.

The village is finishing up on a drainage job on Pine St. Forty-foot lengths of 24-inch culvert tubing have been installed along two blocks of Pine with the idea of carrying excess surface water to other tiles that eventually empty into Hickory Creek. This work on Pine St. is supposed to take care of water coming under the railroad tracks from the south area. Engineers advised that a two-foot ditch or swale would carry more water than the buried pipe but people there wanted it out of sight.

JOHN C. WHITCHER 812 Jefferson St., has been appointed Superintendent of Recreation for the Lockport Township Park District, according to an announcement from Charles Hoscheit, director of parks and recreation. Whitcher was formerly employed as a supervisor of intramurals at Eastern Illinois University, and has worked with the Urbana Park District.

Mokena Festival For 4th Of July

MOKENA — "An Old Fashioned Fourth" is the theme of the annual July 2-5 festival this year, sponsored by the community's Lions Club.

There will be an old fashioned carnival among other old fashioned features of the celebration, all there except the old fashioned cannon crackers that had a way of maiming a celebrant now and then.

The carnival will be open the evenings of July 2 and 3, and all day July 4 and 5.

A parade on the fourth will start at 1:30 p.m. after which firemen from various communities will compete in water ball fights at 2:30 p.m. and a baseball game at 4:30 p.m. An auction is scheduled for 7 p.m.

The annual fireworks display and award of the grand prize will end the festival at 9:45 p.m. July 5.

That afternoon there will be children's parade at 1:30 followed by children's races at 2. The events will be in Mokena Community Park.

Also on the card for the fourth will be the second annual Fred Lehmann Memorial Mile Run. This event under the direction of Joe Rodriguez, head track coach at Lincoln - Way High School, was inaugurated last year as a memorial to the late Fred Lehmann. The race will start in Pilcher Park at Joliet at 10 a.m. and finish at Mokena Community Park.

Last year 18 runners completed, ranging in age from 10 to 18. The race was won by David Merrick, state champion cross country runner in high school competition.

A teen dance will be held from 6-9 p.m. July 3 in the park pavillion. The festival queen will be crowned at 7:30 at the dance. The girl selling the most votes — at $1 each will be elected queen.

Various church organizations, and others including the Mokena Volunteer Firemen, will have booths at the park.

Persons who have items to donate for the auction are asked to contact Norman Strassenburg.

Bolingbrook Adopts Fair Housing Law

BOLINGBROOK - The Bolingbrook Village Board has voted unanimously to adopt a fair housing ordinance. The action came after a presentation was given to the board by J.J. Kovach, chairman of the Human Relations Commission. Phyllis Courtney, a member of the commission, also was present at the meeting.

The ordinance is based on Oak Park's fair housing ordinance and was given to the Bolingbrook attorney for additions and deletions prior to the presentation. According to Kovach, it is now more in line with existing federal statutes.

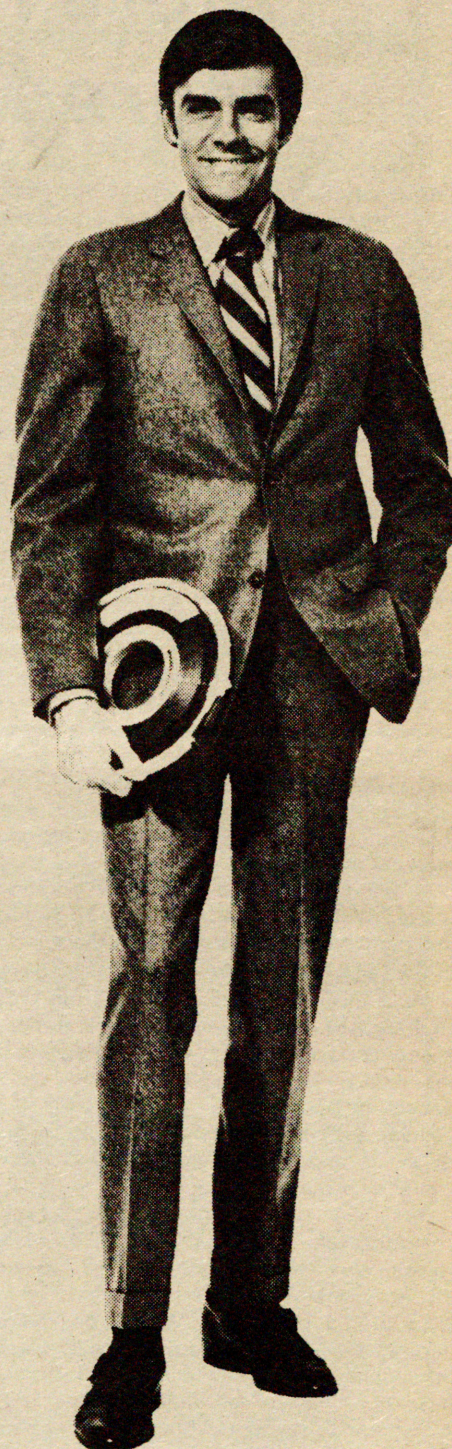

58 years later, Southwest Cook Area still depends on Bremen Bank.

Longer hair, thick sideburns, wide collars, flowing ties. Men's styles seem to have come almost a full circle in the 58 years since Bremen Bank first opened its doors for business.

But styles in banking at Bremen — that's a different story . . . It was easier to be modern in 1912 (when Bremen opened). In those days, bank services consisted of commercial loans, checking and savings accounts . . . that's all.

As the years passed we have steadily expanded our services. Today we offer over 20 types of financial services to our customers.

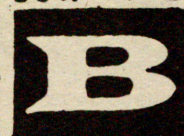

It's gratifying that, after all these years, Southwest Cook residents and businessmen still depend on Bremen Bank to help achieve their goals.

More Housing More Students

If anyone fires any rockets or dances in the streets in celebration of the fact that the Hoffman-Rosner Corp. real estate developers are planning a settlement of 10,000 people in a corner of Frankfort Township, it is doubtful that few, if any, of the celebrants will be taxpayers in the Ann Rutledge and Arbury Hills elementary school districts, or the Lincoln-Way High School district.

The development, which is to extend north of U.S. 30 with a piece of it on Harlem Ave., contains about 600 acres. The 28 zoning changes requested were approved by the county board on the recommendation of the Will County Zoning Board of Appeals.

The attorney for the petitioners told the zoning board at a June 8 hearing in Ann Rutledge School that the subdividers' plan is to build some 3,300 dwellings over a 10-year period. There are to be 995 homes in the $20,000 to $25,000 range, he said, and 1,365 duplex and townhouse units ranging from $20,000 to $25,000 and 972 one, two and three-bedroom apartments at moderate rentals.

It is also reported that the company bought the unimproved lots in Arbury Hills and plans to build low cost homes there.

At a meeting last winter at Lincoln-Way High School, a representative of Hoffman-Rosner said eventually Ann Rutledge and the Arbury Hill elementary schools could expect to serve 3,000 children from the development-Frankfort Square is the name given it-and that Lincoln-Way's share would be around 1,000.

The two grade school districts have comparatively small tax bases and, while Lincoln-Way High School district covers all of Frankfort and New Lenox Townships and a portion of Manhattan Township, it and the elementary districts have to depend on revenue coming principally from taxes on homes. Industries are few. As of the present, the bonding power of all three districts is practically exhausted, and there is no reason to believe it will recover to a point soon so the new schools made necessary by the Hoffman Rosner development can be built.

There was a suggestion at the zoning board hearing that the developers would subsidize the elementary school needs to the extent of $600,000. But it was vague. About $200,000 of the $600,000 would be in land. The developers were to give 41 acres for school sites but "give" in this case means "instead of cash," as far as school authorities have been able to learn.

Officials of Summit Hill District 161, the formal designation for Arbury Hills School, have the impression that Hoffman-Rosner will spend around $400,000 for building and furnishing the schools. The developers also have suggested the two elementary districts, request the State School Building Commission to complete the building program. The two superintendents were advised to start a campaign to get the voters to approve an arrangement with the state under which the state would advance the money for the buildings and the districts would pay it back monthly over the next 16 years.

We suspect the developer will start agitating for the school districts to seek help from the state building commission long before any serious inroad is made on the $600,000 school subsidy fund mentioned at the zoning board of appeals meeting.

Supt. William Avila of Arbury Hills School has been trying for many weeks to get the developers to put down in writing their plan but has been unsuccessful to date.

Supt. Joseph Kruzich of Lincoln-Way High School is the only school official who really knows what his district will get out of the Frankfort Square developers. Lincoln-Way will get nothing Kruzich was informed at the zoning meeting. It can only plan to provide for 1,000 more students within the next several years meaning another school and another faculty at the expense of property owners already carrying a heavy tax burden. But as far as Hoffman-Rosner is concerned there will be no money for the high school. Representatives of the developers have made it plain, Avila said, that they are in the home building business, not the school business.

It is unfortunate that some of the school attorneys did not suggest that boards file formal, legal objections to the zoning. Had an objection been filed, it would have taken a vote of three fourths of the membership of the county board to approve the zoning board's recommendations. The school districts at least would have been in a better bargaining position and might have succeeded in getting the developers to put their promises in writing.

Arbury Hills, Mokena To Discuss Annexation

MOKENA — There are some people in Mokena who plump for annexation and there are some who oppose it. From recent action by the village council it would appear that the "plumpers" are in the majority.

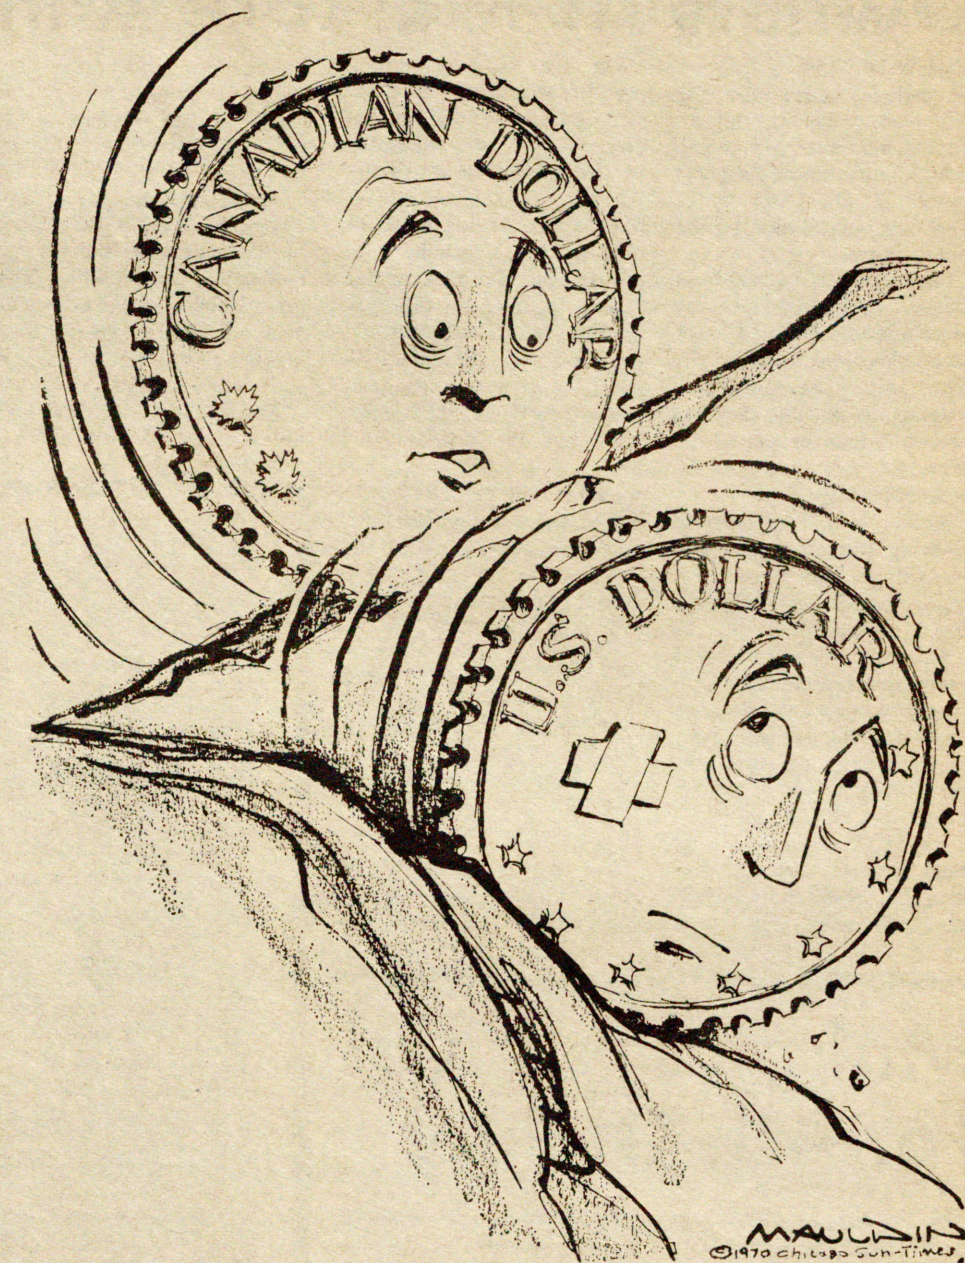

The Mokena board, working with Frankfort, has gone along with strip annexation for sometime. So far neither board has been challenged as neither has attempted to take in any property along the roads that hasn't wanted to become a part of the municipalities.

Now Mokena is preparing to annex 191st across I-80. This would give Mokena a clear shot at annexing Arbury Hills if the Hills wants to become a part of the village and the village people want it. It also would serve the Village should industry acquire the property at the northeast corner of 191st and U.S. 45.

The village board is scheduled to meet with the Arbury Hills Civic Assoc. in the clear shot at annexing Arbury Hills if the Hills wants to become a part of the village and the village people want it. It also would serve the Village should industry acquire the property at the northeast corner of 191st and U.S. 45.

"I used to look up to you, chum, but you've changed."

Dist. 205 in Limbo

The question of whether or not District 205, the Lockport High School District, will be split into two smaller districts now rests with the Will County Board of School Trustees. Last Wednesday night, the trustees heard the testimony of many east and west side residents, who spoke both for and against the split. Anyone who attended the hearing who did not already have a firm commitment one way or the other and hoped to gain insight upon which to base a decision was surely disappointed. Both sides are very convincing. Both sides are very sincere.

However, there are questions that remain in the back of one's mind. West side proponents of the split are eager to illustrate that they, alone, have supported the school board's referendum. They also point to the tremendous and rapid growth of Bolingbrook, which, if projected figures are accurate, will have a population of more than 70,000 in 1985. But Bolingbrook did not grow and become prosperous by detaching anything. They think more in terms of annexing. Yet they feel their schools will never get anywhere if they must depend on east side voters for approval. Many east side residents of the district insist that once the split is accomplished, they will happily support "their" schools. They will not, they state repeatedly, build schools they "never see." And yet, when Taft School recently presented a referendum to its voters, it was rejected. It would not have aided a single person who did not live within a stone's throw, and surely Taft School is seen regularly by the voters in District 90. The people who oppose the division do so mostly on the aforementioned grounds. They also remind their opponents that Homer Township is expected to experience tremendous growth in the next few years. Nobody really knows where industry may locate. In addition, they are opposed to a detachment on educational grounds. In their opinion, a larger district has a much greater educational advantage. What it really boils down to is money, or rather the lack of it. The schools cannot operate without it, the voters seem most reluctant to provide it, and the ones who are left out in the cold are the kids. If the trustees decide the district would be better off in two parts, it will be very interesting to see what develops. If they say no, hopefully both groups will be able to come together and work out something else, which will result in a better education for the students in District 205. Which is really what it's all about.

Finds Job As Hospital Volunteer Rewarding

JOLIET — "Grow old along with me, the best is yet to be," Robert Browning's words, best express Archie Corp's outlook on life. The 84-year-old gentleman of 103 North Cedar Rd., New Lenox, is a new volunteer at Silver Cross Hospital following in the footsteps of his late wife, Flossie, who was a charter volunteer when the program was first organized in 1959.

"I was against Flossie volunteering at first because I thought it would keep her too tied down", said Corp. After spending over 50 years operating Corp's Grocery Store in New Lenox, he wanted to travel. Mrs. Corp's volunteer activity didn't stop the Corps from traveling. They returned many times to their native England, touring the British Isles, and made trips to Denmark, South America, Mexico and other European countries.

Mr. Corp has resided in the New Lenox area for 76 years; his wife was his childhood sweetheart.

As a volunteer at Silver Cross, Mr. Corp helps fold gowns in Central Sterile Supply, plays games and talks to elderly patients and youngsters. According to Mr. Corp, "Volunteering is one of the most rewarding things I've ever done."

Lewis, Saint Francis Plan Fall Merger

LOCKPORT — The Joliet area will become the site of Illinois' largest private college this September when Lewis College in Lockport and the College of Saint Francis in Joliet begin merged operations. The new educational enterprise, referred to as Lewis-Saint Francis, will enroll 3,300 students, the sixth largest undergraduate enrollment of the state's more than 30 private colleges and universities.

The two colleges had been exploring merger since the Fall of 1968, but it wasn't until recent weeks that actions were taken "which involved irrevocable commitment to full merger of the two colleges," according to the president of each. The "irrevocable" steps include a resolution by the boards of the colleges to "unify all aspects of operations by September of 1970," followed by the selection of one president to take office by September of 1971.

The new coeducational, liberal arts college will operate with two campuses. The North (Lewis) Campus is a 670-acre complex on Route 53 in rural Lockport. A $3.8 million Learning Resources Center is scheduled to open on this campus by mid-summer. Eight miles south in a residential neighborhood of Joliet is the South (Saint Francis) Campus.

The two campuses are connected by a free commuter bus service for students. Starting time for classes is staggered so that students can take courses at each campus.

With the exception of the presidency, all academic and administrative departments will be merged under one chairman or director by the start of the Fall Semester. Brother Paul French, F.S.C., who has served as president of Lewis since 1967, and Francis Kerins, Ph.D., who became the first lay president of the College of Saint Francis in the summer of 1969, will share responsibilities of the office through the first year of merged operations, until a single president is named.

The merger has been aided by a $50,000 Higher Education Act grant from the Department of Health, Education and Welfare. Awarded under Title III of the Higher Education Act of 1965, for strengthening developing institutions, the grant will be used to fund two new positions created by the merger and to underwrite at least a portion of the inter-campus transportation system.

Heading the list of new positions created by the merger is a vice president for the merger, who will coordinate the daily operation of the composite academic enterprise. A new director of institutional research will design a data gathering and storage system for use in institutional decision making.

A vice president for academic affairs will be appointed to coordinate the work of the academic administrative team and a vice president for student affairs will direct the administration of student services. A vice president for college development will also be appointed. The two presidents said they expect all positions to be filled before the end of the summer.

Yogurt

From young Americans to senior citizens, people everywhere are discovering yogurt. For breakfast or lunch, as a between-meal snack or a delicious dessert, it's one of the newer dairy products on the market today.

Yogurt has a smooth texture like that of custard, the flavor of buttermilk and the whiteness of sour cream. The standard form is plain, but a variety of flavored yogurt is available: vanilla, chocolate, coffee and fruit flavors.

The calorie range for plain yogurt varies from 120 to 160 for an 8-ounce serving, depending on whether it is made from partially skimmed milk or whole milk. The nutritive value is as high as that of the milk from which it is made. Usually 11 to 12 per cent non-milk solids are added to yogurt to supply extra milk nutrients, especially protein, calcium and B vitamins.

In addition to eating it as is from the carton, yogurt can be served in many ways.

Use it as a dip for crisp raw vegetables — cucumber slices, green pepper rings, celery fans, carrot sticks, cauliflowerettes.

Top waffles with flavored yogurt sweetened with confectioners sugar or honey.

Serve consume with a dollop of plain yogurt.

As a topping for fruit, sweeten yogurt with honey or fruit juice or use it straight from the container.

Combine cooked rice with plain or flavored yogurt and sweeten to taste.

Use yogurt for one-half the liquid in prepared puddings.

Experiment with it; use your imagination. You'll find many more uses for this convenient, nutritious dairy product.

Highest Honor Given At Court Of Awards

Marie Hovi
Telephone 479-5740
Cadette Girl Scout Troop 336 held its Court of Awards June 12 at the Arbury Hills School. The opening ceremony was performed by Jeralyn Ferro, Jackie Hurley, Karen Berry and Debbie Galarza. The pledge of allegiance was lead by Mrs. Barry Diercouff, cadette leader.

The Cadettes had invited all juniors from the troops in Mokena and Arbury Hills who were ready to be bridged into Cadettes. A bridging ceremony was held with the Cadettes welcoming the incoming Juniors after they bid farewell to junior leaders and said the Girl Scout Promise. They then sang, "Make New Friends."

A candle lighting ceremony was held, beginning in the darkness. Jeralyn Ferro lit the three candles which stand for the promise. The remainder of the Cadettes Ferro. This is the highest honor bestowed on a girl during her three years in Cadettes.

The Boy Scouts of Troop 10 participated in the tenth anniversary hike of the Chief Shabbona Trail. The hike trail is 16 1/2 miles long and is in the Joliet vicinity.

Donna and Gayland Del Sasso of 19537 South Beechnut Drive became the parents of their first girl, Christa Lee, who weighed 8 pounds, 10 ounces at birth. She was born June 6 at the Silver Cross Hospital in Joliet.

Bill and Donna Cheesman of 9440 West Magnolia also became the parents of their second child, but this one was their second son who they named Robert Charles. He weighed 5 pounds, 12 ounces.

There was a mixture of rains and games for the previous week with the A team playing Manhattan at Manhattan and lost by the score of ten to six. The Friday Pony game was rained out and will be played at a later date.

The two B teams played a scheduled game on Saturday, and Mrs. Evans' team won by a score of 13-6.

Sunday three games were scheduled, but the weather changed that. The first game matched the two older girls' softball teams against each other with Mr. Behnke's team defeating Mr. Sandy's team by the score of 30-10. The second game was the Lincoln Estates team against Mr. Sandy's team. The game was rained out as well as the game for younger girls under Mrs. Haas.

Soggy Monday saw another game slogged out, but on Tuesday the sun smiled and a large batch of sand made the field playable. Tuesday the Pony Team played the New Lenox State Bank Team with the final score of 4-1.

We are happy to report that at this writing, young Kathy

Jo Cumbee is very much improved and is home from the hospital. The grateful family is thankful for her rapid recovery.

There was another pre-season exhibition game played at the baseball field on Sunday, May 10. The first game was a softball game with the older girls participating against the team from Lincoln Estates. The softball team is new to Arbury Hills this year, and the girls are having the time of their lives. The final score of the game was "about" twenty-one to twenty in favor of Lincoln Estates. Not exactly a pitchers' battle, but loads of fun for the standing room only crowd.

The second game was between the Pony Team from Arbury Hills and the Pony Team from Lincoln Estates. The score was closer than the first game, but still a definite victory for Arbury Hills by the score of thirteen to two.

in turn lighted the ten candles representing the laws. The song, "When 'ere You Make a Promise" was sung.

Presentation of badges was preceded by the awarding of year pins. Karen and Sharon Berry were recognized for receiving child-care badges in March. Deborah Mosner received the dressmaker badge. Jackie Hurley received the chef, childcare, hostess, dressmaker, homemaker and my government badges. Jeralyn Ferro received the chef, clerk, home nurse, minstrel, music maker, family living, reporter, reader and social dancer.

Mrs. Diercouff reviewed what the Cadettes had done during the past year and explained to the incoming Cadettes the qualifications of a First Class Scout. She then presented the Challenge of Social Dependability Challenge Pin to Karen Berry, Debbie Galarza and Jackie Hurley. To earn this challenge they had prepared the entire program for the evening.

The Girl Scout Promise Challenge Pin was then presented to Jeralyn Ferro. To earn this challenge, a girl must live up to the Girl Scout Promise and Laws not only at meetings, but in her everyday life.

The highlight for the evening was the presentation of First Class Scout to Jeralyn

Crash Fatal To Child; Driver Escapes Train

NEW LENOX — A 21-month-old child was killed, three persons hospitalized, and a New Lenox youth was dragged from his automobile just before it was struck by an east bound Rock Island suburban train.

The collision occurred shortly before 8 p.m. last Tuesday at U.S. 30 and Cherry Hill Road.

Sidney Nordwall, 19, of 482 Sycamore St., New Lenox, was traveling east on U.S. 30, and Mrs. Helen Ludke, 47, of 662 Howard St., Joliet, was westbound.

According to a state police report, Mrs. Ludke was making a left turn onto Cherry Hill Road when her car was struck in the rear by Nordwall's vehicle. Nordwall's car spun off to the north side of the highway, coming to rest on the Rock Island track near the entrance to the Pilcher Park camping area.

Donald Johnson, 40, a nearby resident, heard the crash and saw Nordwall behind the wheel, apparently unconscious. Johnson, aware that an eastbound train was coming, seized Nordwall and pulled him from the car. Johnson leaped and pulled Nordwall clear of the track an instant before the train hit the car.

The four occupants of the Ludke car were taken to Silver Cross Hospital at Joliet, where Toni Webster, was pronounced dead on arrival from a skull fracture. The baby's mother, Mrs. Sharon Webster, Joel Ludke, 5, and Mrs. Ludke, mother of Mrs. Webster, were hospitalized.

No summons were issued by police.

Mokena Police Improve Their Radio Equipment

MOKENA — The Mokena police department will become a part of the Illinois State Police Radio Network, July 3. Two radio transmitter-receivers are being forwarded to the Mokena department for use in police cars. The receivers have been paid for out of state funds and by the end of the year the state hopes to have all the police departments a part of the network.

When the network is complete it will mean that every police car in the state will have a common frequency so it can communicate with any other police car in Illinois as well as state police stations.

This system will be invaluable, it was pointed out, for communication in a high speed chase or when a district, regional or state search is on and speedy exchange of information may be the difference between success or failure.

New Lenox police have already installed their ISPRN equipment.

Mokena police have also added to their own radio equipment by the purchase of two eight-channel scanners, it was announced by Chief Wayne Ryder. They were purchased by the Police Association through funds the men have raised. Both of these instruments are installed as the two department bases. These devices have eight lights, one for each station with which Mokena police has contact: Will County police; State police Dist. 4; State Police Dist. 5; Mokena fire department; New Lenox fire department; the weather station which warns of the approach or severe weather and car to car.

Theater Opening Planned

SOUTHWEST — Construction of the Tangerine Tent Theater, sponsored by Lewis College and the College of St. Francis is expected to start soon at a site north of Lockport on Route 53, across from the White Fence Farm. The tent which will accommodate 300, will feature four plays this summer.

Opening the season will be William Inge's "Picnic" on July 1, followed on July 15, by "Mary, Mary," the comedy by Jean Kerr. Neil Simon's "The Star Spangled Girl," the third play in the series, will run the weeks of July 29 and August 5. Finishing up the season will be a Gay Nineties melodrama, "Dirty Work at the Crossroads," to run the weeks of August 12 and 19.

Season tickets for the plays are expected to go on sale later this week at Al Baskin's in Joliet and Goldblatt's in Hillcrest, and at the two colleges. Tickets are $8 for the season and $2.50 for single performances.

Single performances of each play will be given on Wednesdays, Thursdays, Fridays, and Sundays, with two performances on Saturdays. Curtain time is 8 p.m. for weeknight performances, 7 and 10 p.m. on Saturdays.

(in understanding, there is money)

	4½%	5%	5½%	5¾%
How to use the account	Your regular savings account, an interest paying cookie jar. You can have too much or too little in this account. Additional money should go in higher interest accounts instead.	Your Golden Savings Account. Save for the costly things you want. A nice vacation, a color TV, a new refrigerator, your big dream. Think of it as an installment plan that pays interest.	A very safe investment. Here's where you keep money you hope not to use for a long time. Money for retirement, college educations, a summer cottage.
To earn this interest	4½% is the highest legal interest a bank can pay on regular savings and still allow you to get your money at any time without losing interest.	You agree to keep your money on deposit for at least 90 days.	You agree to keep your money on deposit for a full year. (If you think you can keep it in for more than a year use the 5½% plan.)	In order to earn 5¾%, you agree to leave your money on deposit for 2 years or more.
How to start and build your savings	Start with $10.00. You can add any amount, at any time and still earn your 4½%.	Start with $100.00. You can add any amount, at any time but each deposit must remain for 90 days to earn 5%.	These are certificates you can buy instead of deposits you make. The certificate can be purchased for as little as $100—a very low price for C.D.'s. And, you start earning interest from the time you buy it.
How is interest paid	Interest is paid quarterly.	Interest is paid quarterly.	Interest is paid quarterly. And, interest checks can be mailed monthly, semi-annually, annually, depending on the amount of the certificates.

All interest is earned from day of deposit and is compounded continuously by computer, so it's actually somewhat higher in the long run.

A well-organized savings plan is the easiest way we know to pick up some extra money. So here's a simple, unconfused presentation of all the savings plans available at our bank. We don't think you should be kept out of a good deal just because we haven't taken the time to explain it clearly.
